

Rocks and Ropes Outdoor Climbing School and Guide Service is committed to maintaining the most current training and certification according to the World acknowledged industry standards of the AMGA.

Hire a professional guide to turn an experience into an education. First-timers and experts alike can climb more challenging routes, improve skills and learn more advanced skills. The benefits of climbing with a guide must be experienced first-hand.

RATES

Private Trips to Mt. Lemmon

*includes transport to/from Tanque Verde/Catalina Hwy.

1/2 Day (up to 5 hrs.)

Single	$150/person/day
2-9 people	$125/person/day
10+ people	$100/person/day

Full Day (5-8 hrs.)

Single	$225/person/day
2-9 people	$200/person/day
10+ people	$175/person/day

CORPORATE/TEAM BUILDING

*includes transport to/from resort

1/2 Day (up to 5 hrs.)

1-4 people	$175/person/day
5-9 people	$150/person/day
10+ people	$125/person/day

Full Day (5-8 hrs.)

1-4 people	$250/person/day
2-9 people	$225/person/day
10+ people	$200/person/day

OUTDOOR CLIMBING SCHOOL & GUIDE SERVICE

American Mountain Guides Association

GUIDES

Jason Mullins: owner

Climbing since 1985
 AMGA Certified Single Pitch Instructor '08
 AMGA Rock Instructor Course '05
 Wilderness First Responder '06

Greg Rupp

Climbing since 1996
 AMGA Certified Single Pitch Instructor '08
 AMGA Rock Instructor Course '05
 Wilderness First Responder '06

Luke Bertelsen

Climbing since 1993
 AMGA Certified Top-Rope Site Manager '05
 Wilderness First Responder '06
 Level 1 Avalanche School certification
 Intermediate Icecraft training

Sean Harris

Climbing since 2002
 AMGA Certified Top-Rope Site Manager '05

operating under permit of USDA/US Forest Service

MT. LEMMON FEATURES

Bouldering
 Extensive top-rope and lead Areas
 Grade III routes
 Routes from 5.4 to 5.13+
 Elevations range from 2500 feet to over 9000 feet
 Year-round climbing
 Amazing biodiversity and "life zones"

